

The triangular tiling can be uniquely composed on the following scheme

However additional neighbour rules are needed to force non-periodicity - a theme I picked up again in 2005

Alternative decorations are by stripes or rhombuses

All these variations are subject to the periodicities I called "3 left (or right) feet", which exists at each inflation.

